The RED LINE EZ50 - the powder coating gun for all coaters ...

The RED LINE EZ50

Are you a casual-coater who wants high quality results normally associated with premium industrial machines? The RED LINE Ez50 is what you need - a hobby machine with unmatched performance.

Are you a first-time coater who wants to experiment or 'test the waters' at minimal investment? The RED LINE EZ50 is the answer - high quality results with low, low investments.

Are you an industrial coater who wants true portability? With everything put inside the gun itself, the RED LINE EZ50 offers unmatched portability.

Are you a professional coater who just wants a low cost standby powder gun? The RED LINE EZ50 beats them all.

The RED LINE EZ50 - the all-inclusive powder coating gun for all coaters.

Check out these features ...

- ▶ No control panel, no hopper and no interconnecting cables, wires or tubes - truly portable.
- ▶ Electrostatic output voltage upto 50 kV (infinitely variable from the rear of the gun itself) for excellent powder charging - no need to compromise with lower inefficient charging voltages.
- ▶ ForceFeed Technology for high volume uniform and consistent powder flow - comparable to some higher-end machines - adjustable with a flow controller on the gun itself.
- ▶ A light-weight and perfectly balanced hand-held gun for user-ease and comfort.

An unmatched range of powder flow pattern generators - 12 mm (1/2") 19 mm (3/4") and 25 mm (1"), and a flat spray pattern generator, inter-changeable at will - within seconds.

- ▶ Comes with a long power cable and a separate ground cable with a large crocodile clip.
